New appointments: Additional Area Sales Manager at Bahmüller

Bahmüller has appointed Oliver Weinmann (aged 43) as the new area sales manager, responsible for Northern Germany, Scandinavia, South Europe, Turkey and Asia. He started his business already on 1. September 2013.

After his education at Heidelberger Druck, he began his career as certified mechanical engineer in the corrugated board industry with MOSCA, the strapping equipment specialist located in Southern Germany. Within MOSCA he has risen through the ranks for 13 years with positions as project and regional manager. For the past years he has served as key account manager for corrugated board with sales activities in Middle East, Turkey and Norway.

“Bringing with him many years of experience in the corrugated board business, Bahmueller is very pleased with personnel growth to increase its sales activities”, states Ulrich G. Wolz, managing director corrugated board division.
